

Name _____

Antigens and Antibodies: Partners in Immune Defense

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is an antigen?
 - a) Any foreign substance that triggers an immune response.
 - b) A type of food.
 - c) A superhero.
 - d) A type of bird.

2. What are antibodies?
 - a) Special proteins produced by the body to recognize and neutralize specific antigens.
 - b) A type of rock.
 - c) A type of plant.
 - d) A type of candy.

3. What is the role of antibodies in the immune response?
 - a) To recognize and neutralize specific antigens.
 - b) To cause chaos in the body.
 - c) To make people dance.
 - d) To turn people into superheroes.

4. How do antibodies help the immune system mount a faster response in the future?
 - a) By keeping a record of past encounters with antigens.
 - b) By causing inflammation.
 - c) By making people invisible.
 - d) By turning into superheroes.

5. What is the analogy used in the passage to describe the relationship between antigens and antibodies?
 - a) A dynamic duo.
 - b) A rock and a hard place.
 - c) A bird and a nest.
 - d) A plant and sunlight.

