

Name _____

The College Application Odyssey

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where did the narrator find the box of letters, essays, and documents related to their sibling's college application process?
 - A) In their own room
 - B) In a dusty attic
 - C) In their older sibling's room
 - D) In a college admissions office

2. What was the first document the narrator found in the box related to their sibling's college application?
 - A) An acceptance letter from their dream college
 - B) A handwritten essay
 - C) A rejection letter
 - D) A collection of notes and advice

3. What did the handwritten essays in the box represent for the narrator's sibling?
 - A) A collection of rejection letters
 - B) A source of disheartenment
 - C) A testament to their determination
 - D) A box of memories

4. How did the narrator's sibling react to the rejection letters from other colleges?
 - A) They felt disheartened and gave up on their dreams
 - B) They celebrated each rejection as a step forward
 - C) They were inspired to apply to more colleges
 - D) They ignored the rejection letters

5. What role did the notes and advice from mentors, teachers, and friends play in the narrator's sibling's college application journey?
 - A) They discouraged the sibling from pursuing higher education
 - B) They reminded the sibling that they were alone in their pursuit
 - C) They provided encouragement and support
 - D) They criticized the sibling's choices

