

Name _____

The Senior Prank War

Short Answer Key

1. Unique characters involved in the Senior Prank War include Mildred with her confetti cane, Fred the former clown filling the hallways with beach balls, and Agnes the ventriloquist using her dummy, Oscar, for pranks.
2. The staff members of Silver Haven initially reacted with surprise and confusion but eventually found the pranks endearing and enjoyable. The residents felt rejuvenated and closer to their youth.
3. The residents of Silver Haven could continue to relive their youth by organizing theme parties, talent shows, and movie nights from their era. They could also plan creative outings and adventures.
4. The importance of laughter and playfulness regardless of age is to maintain a positive and joyful outlook on life, fostering stronger bonds among individuals and bringing happiness to their daily lives.

