

Name _____

The Great April Fool's Fiasco

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Some may believe it's important to have fun and play pranks on April Fool's Day to bring laughter and joy to people, while others may think it's not necessary and that pranks should always be harmless and considerate.
2. Answers may vary. For example, they could have created a special shampoo to wash out the green color or organized a funny costume parade for everyone with green hair.
3. Answers may vary. Some townspeople may have gained more respect for Professor Prankster and his team for their efforts to fix the prank, while others might remain skeptical of their pranks in the future.
4. Answers may vary. Students can come up with their own creative ideas for April Fool's Day pranks if they were part of Professor Prankster's team. The key is to encourage imagination and humor in their responses.

