

Name _____

Architectural Movements

Short Answer Questions

1. Describe the key characteristics of Gothic architecture, including its distinguishing features.
2. What inspired the design elements of Art Nouveau architecture, and how do these elements differ from other architectural movements?
3. Explain the significance of the Renaissance period in the context of architectural history and provide an example of a Renaissance building.
4. How does Baroque architecture differ from Neoclassical architecture in terms of design and ornamentation?
5. Choose one architectural movement and discuss how it reflects the culture and values of the era in which it emerged.

