Name _____

The Nicomachean Ethics by Aristotle

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss a real-life situation where Aristotle's concept of eudaimonia and the pursuit of virtue can be applied to make ethical decisions.

2. Compare and contrast Aristotle's ethical framework with a different ethical philosophy or theory that you are familiar with.

3. Reflect on the role of education and moral role models in shaping an individual's character, drawing from your own experiences or observations.

4. How does Aristotle's emphasis on character and virtue contribute to the development of a just and flourishing society, and how might this be relevant in contemporary society?

© ReadingDuck.com