

Name _____

Mystery in the Museum: A Time-Traveling Art Adventure

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sophie's love for art motivated her to explore the museum's basement in search of hidden treasures and unique artworks.
2. Sophie faced challenges related to the stolen crown and the intrigue of the royal court in Tudor England. She used her detective skills and intelligence to help solve the mystery and earn the favor of Queen Elizabeth I.
3. Sophie's experiences in various eras taught her about the cultural, artistic, and historical significance of each period. These experiences expanded her knowledge and perspective, making her more culturally aware and appreciative of the past.
4. Answers may vary. Students may choose any era and artist from the story and provide reasons for their choice based on personal interest or curiosity about a specific time period or artist.

