

Name _____

Night at the Art Museum

Short Answer Key

1. Sir Brushington led the adventure and had a magical paintbrush as his sword.
2. The team gathered clues by examining different artworks and uncovering cryptic messages.
3. Luna's moonlight guided the team through dark hallways and was instrumental in their search.
4. "The Phantom Painter" was a rogue painting brought to life with a desire to steal famous artworks for its own collection.
5. Answers may vary, but the story highlights the power of teamwork, creativity, and the magic of art.

