

Name _____

Ode to Artistic Expression

Short Answer Key

1. Brushes and pencils help people express their souls by allowing them to create visual representations of their thoughts, feelings, and ideas.
2. The phrase "In every stroke, we tell a tale" means that each brushstroke or pencil mark in a piece of art conveys a story or message.
3. The world of art is described as a place where people are bold and free to express themselves creatively.
4. Expressing oneself "for all to see" highlights the openness and visibility of artistic expression, where the artwork is shared with others.
5. Creativity is never expected to fail because it is a powerful and reliable means of self-expression and communication.

