

Name _____

Diego Rivera: The Artist Who Told Stories Through Murals

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. He believed that art should be seen by everyone, not just by people who could afford to visit museums.
2. I would like to see "Man at the Crossroads" because it tells an important story about history and society.
3. His murals showed important events and struggles, helping people understand history through pictures.
4. We can learn to stand up for our beliefs and use creativity to share important messages.

