

Name _____

Respect for Authority

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. What is the main reason for having rules in a classroom?
 - a) To give teachers more control
 - b) To make sure students are quiet all the time
 - c) To avoid asking questions
 - d) To create a fair and comfortable place to learn

2. Why is it important to listen to a crossing guard?
 - a) So you don't get in trouble
 - b) To keep everyone safe while crossing
 - c) Because they are in charge of the road
 - d) To learn how to be a crossing guard

3. How can you show respect if you think a rule is unfair?
 - a) Ignore the rule until it's changed
 - b) Break the rule to prove your point
 - c) Talk politely to the person in charge
 - d) Complain to your friends

4. What might happen in a soccer game if no one listens to the referee?
 - a) The game could become unfair and disorganized
 - b) Players would have more fun
 - c) Everyone would score more goals
 - d) The referee would leave the field

5. What is the passage mostly about?
 - a) The different types of rules in life
 - b) How to argue with authority
 - c) The importance of respecting authority
 - d) What to do if you break a rule

