

Name _____

Respect for Authority

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. Example Answer: I feel respected and valued because I know they are being fair and listening to everyone's needs.
2. Example Answer: One time, I listened to my coach during a soccer game, and their advice helped my team win because we worked together.
3. Example Answer: Some people might think the rules aren't fair or they don't understand why the rules are important. Others might just want to do things their own way.
4. Example Answer: I can set a good example by following the rules and explaining to others why the rules help everyone stay safe and happy.

