

Name _____

Awakening America

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. People probably felt excited, inspired, or even scared because the sermons were powerful and emotional.
2. Religious freedom was important because people wanted to make their own choices about faith.
3. I might have supported the new religious ideas because they encouraged people to think for themselves.
4. Today, some religious movements still use emotional sermons to connect with people.

