

Name _____

Baba Yaga

Short Answer Key

1. Baba Yaga's house was distinctive because it stood on chicken legs, enabling it to move and turn in different directions.
2. Vasilisa's stepmother sent her to Baba Yaga's hut to ask for a light, with the intention of sending her on a dangerous mission.
3. The magical doll played a crucial role in helping Vasilisa complete Baba Yaga's tasks by providing guidance, assistance, and performing tasks on her behalf.
4. Vasilisa used the skull with burning eyes to punish her wicked stepmother. When the skull's fiery gaze fell upon her, she was consumed by flames.
5. Vasilisa's bravery was demonstrated through her willingness to undertake the dangerous journey to Baba Yaga's hut, her perseverance in completing the difficult tasks, and her courage in using the skull to confront her stepmother.

