

Name _____

The Quest to Bring Back Color

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are one of the friends in the story. Which friend's talent would you have liked to possess for the journey, and why? How would you have used your unique abilities to help the group succeed?
2. In the story, the group encountered various environments, from scorching deserts to frozen tundras. Describe how each environment posed unique challenges and how the friends overcame them.
3. The Rainbow Crystal was a symbol of hope and transformation in the story. Can you think of a real-life situation where hope and determination led to a positive change? Share the story and explain what made it inspiring.
4. If you were a resident of the colorless world in the story, how would you have felt when the colors began to return? How might it have changed your daily life and outlook on the world?

