

Name _____

The Bahá'í Faith: A Religion of Unity and Peace

Short Answer Key

1. The oneness of religion in the Bahá'í Faith means that all major world religions share a common spiritual foundation and their fundamental teachings are in harmony.
2. One of the Bahá'í practices is engaging in community gatherings for devotional purposes, study circles, and activities that promote social and spiritual development.
3. Bahá'u'lláh's claim signifies his role as the latest divine messenger in a succession of prophets, each of whom brought guidance from God to humanity. It emphasizes the continuous nature of God's guidance.
4. The Bahá'í Faith views world peace as an essential goal and advocates for collective security and the elimination of prejudices, racism, and discrimination as steps toward achieving global harmony.
5. Canada is one of the countries where the Bahá'í Faith has a significant presence.

