

Name _____

How Do Barracudas Reproduce?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do barracudas fertilize their eggs?
 - A) Internally
 - B) Through external fertilization
 - C) By burying them in the sand
 - D) By carrying them in their mouths

2. When do barracudas typically reproduce?
 - A) During the warmer months
 - B) During the winter months
 - C) In the middle of the night
 - D) Every month of the year

3. What are spawning aggregations?
 - A) Groups of predators
 - B) Groups of barracudas gathering to reproduce
 - C) A type of underwater plant
 - D) A type of coral reef

4. What happens to barracuda eggs after they are fertilized?
 - A) They are eaten by the adults.
 - B) They are carried by the female.
 - C) They float in the ocean currents.
 - D) They attach to coral reefs.

5. Why do barracudas produce thousands of eggs at a time?
 - A) To feed their young
 - B) To scare away predators
 - C) To build nests
 - D) To ensure some survive to adulthood