

Name _____

Baseball Card Collecting: A Grand Tradition with Rich History

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary reason why baseball cards have captured the hearts of collectors for over a century?
 - a) Their colorful designs
 - b) Their use as marketing tools
 - c) Their connection to baseball players and history
 - d) Their affordability

2. When did the history of baseball cards begin?
 - a) In the early 20th century
 - b) In the late 19th century
 - c) In the 1950s
 - d) In the 1800s

3. What is the "golden era" of baseball cards known for?
 - a) The introduction of digital trading cards
 - b) The popularity of oversized cards
 - c) The production of iconic cards with vivid artwork and legendary players
 - d) The decline in interest in baseball cards

4. What makes the Honus Wagner T206 card one of the most valuable baseball cards in the world?
 - a) Its stunning artwork
 - b) Its association with the American Tobacco Company
 - c) Its rarity and a contractual dispute between Wagner and the tobacco company
 - d) Its historical importance

5. Why are some baseball cards highly valuable in the world of collecting?
 - a) Because they are made of gold
 - b) Because they feature modern players
 - c) Due to factors such as rarity, condition, historical importance, and player popularity
 - d) Because they are signed by the players

