

Name _____

Mastering Your Camera: Understanding Basic Settings

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which camera setting controls how long the sensor or film is exposed to light?
  - a) ISO
  - b) Aperture
  - c) Shutter Speed
  - d) White Balance

2. What does a lower f-stop number indicate?
  - a) A wider aperture
  - b) A smaller aperture
  - c) A faster shutter speed
  - d) A higher ISO

3. What does ISO measure in a camera?
  - a) The sensitivity to light
  - b) The depth of field
  - c) The color temperature
  - d) The exposure triangle

4. Which metering mode measures the light at a specific spot in the frame?
  - a) Center-Weighted Metering
  - b) Evaluative Metering
  - c) Spot Metering
  - d) Auto Metering

5. In which shooting mode does the photographer have full control over all settings?
  - a) Auto Mode
  - b) Program Mode
  - c) Aperture Priority Mode
  - d) Manual Mode

