

Name _____

Volleyball Adventure: Bumping, Setting, and Spiking Your Way to Victory!

Short Answer Key

1. A volleyball game starts with a serve.
2. The setter's role in volleyball is to use their fingertips to gently redirect the ball towards a teammate near the net for an attack.
3. The back-row players in a volleyball team are responsible for defense and setting.
4. A rally in volleyball is a sequence of plays where the ball is continuously passed, set, and spiked between the two teams.
5. Rotating players on a volleyball team ensures that each player gets a chance to serve and play in different positions on the court.

