

Name _____

A Day in the Life of a Bass

Short Answer Key

1. Early morning and late evening, when the light is low.
2. Bass hide during the middle of the day to stay cool and avoid predators.
3. Ambush hunting is when a predator hides and waits for prey, then attacks quickly.
4. Male bass build nests and guard the eggs until they hatch.
5. A group of young bass is called a school.

