

Name _____

Frédéric Bazille: Painting the Impressionist Dream

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. (Friendship and collaboration among Impressionist artists played a significant role in their development as artists. The relationship between Frédéric Bazille and Claude Monet was marked by support, shared studio space, and artistic camaraderie, which enriched their artistic journeys.)
2. (Frédéric Bazille commonly portrayed everyday life and landscapes in southern France in his art. His paintings often featured scenes from his own life and those of his friends and family, reflecting the beauty of ordinary moments.)
3. (Color and light were central to the impact of Bazille's paintings. He used vibrant colors and skillfully captured the effects of light and atmosphere, making his works visually captivating. Examples include the interplay of light and shadow in his portraits.)
4. (Artists like Frédéric Bazille played a pivotal role in challenging academic traditions and contributing to the development of the Impressionist movement. Their innovative approaches to capturing the essence of everyday life left an enduring mark on the art world.)

