

Name _____

How Do Bears Communicate?

Short Answer Key

1. Bears make growling, roaring, huffing, and whining sounds.
2. To leave their scent as a way to mark territory or attract mates.
3. Cubs learn by watching their mothers and following her actions.
4. It might be trying to scare off a threat.
5. Body language helps express feelings like submission or aggression.

