

Name _____

Beetles: Nature's Little Helpers

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one way beetles help farmers?
 - A. They eat crops.
 - B. They control pests like aphids.
 - C. They eat seeds.
 - D. They hunt birds.

2. What do dung beetles do with animal waste?
 - A. Use it as food for other animals
 - B. Throw it away
 - C. Spread it across fields
 - D. Roll it into balls and bury it

3. How do beetles help with pollination?
 - A. By eating pollen
 - B. By laying eggs on flowers
 - C. By carrying pollen from flower to flower
 - D. By digging burrows near plants

4. Why are beetles important in the food chain?
 - A. They are a food source for many animals.
 - B. They eat larger predators.
 - C. They grow food for other animals.
 - D. They scare away birds and frogs.

5. How do beetles help scientists study ecosystems?
 - A. They clean up waste.
 - B. They pollinate plants.
 - C. They show the health of an environment.
 - D. They protect other animals.

