

Name _____

The Island's Journey: Beginning, Middle, and End in 'Lord of the Flies'

Multiple Choice Questions

1. At the beginning of the story, what does the conch shell symbolize?
  - a) Chaos and disorder
  - b) Power and authority
  - c) Fear and danger
  - d) Food and sustenance

2. What is the main conflict that emerges in the middle part of the novel?
  - a) The struggle for food and shelter
  - b) The fight for leadership and power
  - c) The battle against a mythical creature
  - d) The attempt to build a rescue signal

3. What happens to Piggy's glasses, and why is it significant?
  - a) They are stolen and used as a weapon by Ralph.
  - b) They are lost in the ocean, causing despair among the boys.
  - c) They are stolen by Jack's group and used to start fires, symbolizing the loss of reason and order.
  - d) They are shared among all the boys to foster cooperation.

4. Who represents reason and civilization in the story's end?
  - a) Ralph and Piggy
  - b) Jack and his tribe
  - c) Sam and Eric
  - d) The mysterious "beast"

5. What is the final outcome for the boys on the island?
  - a) They establish a thriving society.
  - b) They are rescued by a naval officer.
  - c) They become one with the island and its wildlife.
  - d) They are left to fend for themselves indefinitely.

