

Name _____

Unraveling the Mystery of Man's Best Friend

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Dogs are considered highly social animals because they thrive on companionship and interaction, forming strong bonds with their owners.
2. Examples include search and rescue, police work, therapy, and assisting people with disabilities.
3. Dogs communicate their feelings and intentions through a combination of barks, body language, and facial expressions.
4. The diversity of dogs is remarkable because they come in all shapes and sizes due to selective breeding by humans over many generations.

