Ode to Best Friendships

Through laughter and tears, our bond remains strong,

Ode to best friendships, where we all belong.

With secrets and stories, we share our soul,

In each other's company, we're made whole.

Through thick and thin, we'll always stand tall,

Ode to best friends, we love you most of all.

In the journey of life, side by side we'll stride,

Forever together, our friendship is our guide.
