

Name _____

Friends or Foes? Betta Fish and Their Relationships

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of relationship exists between Betta fish and aquatic plants?
 - a. Mutualism
 - b. Commensalism
 - c. Parasitism
 - d. Competition

2. How do Betta fish benefit humans in their natural habitat?
 - a. By protecting aquatic plants
 - b. By cleaning water
 - c. By forming bonds with other animals
 - d. By eating mosquito larvae and controlling pests

3. What is an example of parasitism involving Betta fish?
 - a. Betta fish hiding in plants
 - b. Parasites attaching to Betta fish and making them sick
 - c. Betta fish eating insects
 - d. Betta fish and their owners interacting

4. Why do Betta fish use plants in their environment?
 - a. To rest and hide from predators
 - b. To eat the plants as food
 - c. To scare away other fish
 - d. To help plants grow

5. What kind of relationship do Betta fish have with mosquito larvae?
 - a. Mutualism
 - b. Commensalism
 - c. Predatory
 - d. Parasitism

