

Name _____

Love Beyond Color

Short Answer Key

1. Mary and James organized a storytelling evening to share their love story with the residents.
2. After hearing the couple's story, the residents began inviting Mary and James to join them for meals and activities, and they became more accepting.
3. Sarah was inspired to apologize after listening to Mary and James' love story and realizing the impact of her discrimination.
4. Mary and James shared their story with visiting school groups, hoping to teach young people about the importance of acceptance and love.

