Small-Town vs. Big City

Short Answer Key

1. The Mitchell family moved to the big city because Mr. Mitchell got a new job opportunity. Initially, they found it thrilling but also daunting.
2. Lily struggled to make friends in the city's bustling environment, and Max missed the freedom of open fields while being fascinated by city attractions.
3. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell faced challenges adapting to the city's fast pace and demands of their new jobs. They missed the simplicity and sense of community of their small-town life.
4. They had an open and honest conversation where each family member shared their feelings and concerns. They realized that adapting to city life required compromise and finding a balance between their small-town values and the opportunities of the big city.
