

Name _____

Indonesia's Remarkable Biodiversity

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What makes Indonesia an ideal place for biodiversity?
 - a) Its arid desert climate
 - b) Its small land area
 - c) Its diverse ecosystems and tropical climate
 - d) Its mountainous terrain

2. Which famous animal, known for its intelligence and orange fur, inhabits the rainforests of Borneo and Sumatra?
 - a) Sumatran tiger
 - b) Javan rhinoceros
 - c) Orangutan
 - d) Bali starling

3. What is Indonesia's most famous avian resident, known for its dazzling plumage?
 - a) Javan hawk-eagle
 - b) Bali starling
 - c) Resplendent bird-of-paradise
 - d) Sumatran tiger

4. What type of tree, found in Indonesian rainforests, can reach heights of over 260 feet?
 - a) Coconut palm
 - b) Giant dipterocarp
 - c) Cedar
 - d) Oak

5. What are some of the challenges that Indonesia faces in preserving its biodiversity?
 - a) Deforestation and illegal logging
 - b) Excessive rainfall and flooding
 - c) Lack of interest in conservation
 - d) Too many protected areas

