

Name _____

Birgit Prinz: A Soccer Trailblazer

Short Answer Key

1. Birgit Prinz began playing soccer at a young age, joining a local club in Frankfurt, Germany. Her family's enthusiasm for the sport influenced her passion for soccer.
2. Birgit Prinz won the FIFA Women's World Cup twice with the German national team in 2003 and 2007, with her exceptional skills and leadership playing a crucial role.
3. Birgit Prinz's club career was successful, with achievements in domestic and European competitions, contributing to her reputation as a top soccer player.
4. Birgit Prinz's legacy inspired young female soccer players with her dedication, sportsmanship, and work ethic, motivating them to pursue their dreams.
5. After retiring from playing, Birgit Prinz transitioned to coaching and took on administrative roles in soccer.

