

Name _____

Where Does a Bison Live?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Bison stay in herds to protect each other from predators and find food together.
2. Conservation efforts protect bison from hunting and provide safe habitats where they can live and grow.
3. If grasslands were destroyed, bison would lose their food source and habitat, making survival difficult.
4. Protecting bison helps balance ecosystems and preserve wildlife for future generations.

