

Name _____

How Does a Bison Move?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Herd movement provides protection and increases safety from predators.
2. If bison stopped grazing, grass would overgrow, harming other plants and animals.
3. Bison's strong legs, hooves, and horns help them move and defend themselves.
4. Humans can learn teamwork and the importance of protecting natural spaces by observing bison herds.

