

Name _____

The Haunting of Blackwood Manor

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The friends decided to spend the night at Blackwood Manor to prove their bravery and uncover the truth behind the mansion's dark history. They were motivated by a sense of adventure and a desire to challenge the legends surrounding it.
2. The decaying walls, cold, damp chill, and eerie whispers in the mansion's atmosphere created a sense of foreboding and horror. The setting played a crucial role in building suspense and tension throughout the story.
3. The story conveys that meddling with dark and forbidden knowledge can lead to dangerous consequences, including curses and malevolent forces. It emphasizes the idea that some secrets are best left undiscovered.
4. The friends' experience in Blackwood Manor likely deepened their belief in the power of legends and curses. They witnessed firsthand the real and chilling consequences of the mansion's cursed history, which would forever shape their perspective on such tales.

