

Name _____

Blooming Benefits: Why Grow Biennial Plants in Your Garden

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one advantage of biennial plants over annuals?
 - A) They offer long-lasting beauty year after year
 - B) They complete their life cycle within a single growing season
 - C) They require frequent watering
 - D) They are not hardy

2. Why are biennial plants considered low maintenance?
 - A) They require constant pruning
 - B) They need frequent fertilization
 - C) They are hardy and resilient once established
 - D) They only grow in specific soil types

3. What is a benefit of seed saving in biennial plants?
 - A) It attracts pollinators
 - B) It requires less water
 - C) It reduces garden maintenance
 - D) It allows for propagation without additional effort

4. Why are biennial flowers prized for garden design?
 - A) They are only available in limited colors
 - B) They cannot attract pollinators
 - C) They add versatility with different colors, textures, and heights
 - D) They require constant maintenance

5. What role do biennial flowers play in supporting biodiversity?
 - A) They deter pests
 - B) They provide food for pollinators
 - C) They require excessive watering
 - D) They are invasive species

