The Secret Book Club

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the theme of resistance against oppressive regimes as depicted in the story. How can literature and reading be acts of resistance, and what does this say about the power of ideas and knowledge?
2. Imagine you were a member of the Meadowbrook Literary Resistance. How would you have felt and what books would you have chosen to read and preserve? How might you have contributed to the club's activities?
3. Explore the idea of censorship and the suppression of ideas in the story. What are the dangers of limiting access to information and literature, and how can the act of reading be a form of rebellion against such restrictions?
4. Discuss the role of literature in shaping our beliefs, values, and perspectives. How can books inspire critical thinking, empathy, and a deeper understanding of the world? Share a personal experience where a book had a significant impact on your life and worldview.
