

Name _____

Respecting Rules and Personal Boundaries

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. Answer: Answers will vary. Students might describe situations like someone cutting in line or not following game rules, leading to arguments or unfair outcomes. Respect could have prevented the problem by ensuring fairness and understanding.
2. Answer: Answers will vary. Students might say they felt safe, valued, or comfortable when their boundaries were respected.
3. Answer: Respecting personal boundaries shows that you care about your friend's feelings and comfort. It helps build trust and keeps the friendship strong.
4. Answer: Answers will vary. Examples could include following school rules like walking in hallways to prevent accidents or sharing toys to ensure everyone feels included.

