

Name _____

Marie Bracquemond: Painting with Passion

Short Answer Key

1. (Marie Bracquemond received formal artistic training in Paris and was mentored by prominent artists such as Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres and Eugène Delacroix.)
2. (Marie Bracquemond's paintings captured the essence of daily life and the beauty of nature through her meticulous portrayal of flowers, such as her bouquets with intricate play of light and shadow.)
3. (Marie Bracquemond faced challenges as a female artist during the 19th century when the art world was male-dominated. Despite these challenges, she persevered, continued to create art, and exhibited her work.)
4. (Marie Bracquemond's paintings adhered to Impressionist principles, capturing the effects of light, color, and atmosphere. These elements contributed to the freshness and immediacy of her art.)
5. (Marie Bracquemond's dedication to her craft and her passion for art were central to her artistic journey. They fueled her commitment to portraying the world as she saw it.)

