

Name _____

Marie Bracquemond: Painting with Passion

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. (Marie Bracquemond commonly depicted themes of daily life, the beauty of nature through flower paintings, and leisure activities. Her work provided glimpses into the everyday moments that she found inspiring.)
2. (Mentorship played a crucial role in Marie Bracquemond's artistic development, with artists like Ingres and Delacroix mentoring her. Their influence can be seen in her dedication to capturing detail and her exploration of color.)
3. (Marie Bracquemond's contribution to Impressionism involved capturing the effects of light, color, and atmosphere, which aligned with the movement's principles. Her commitment to these elements added depth to her art.)
4. (Marie Bracquemond's legacy includes her role in breaking down barriers for female artists in the art world. Her dedication to her craft and the recognition she gained have paved the way for greater acceptance of female artists.)

