

Name _____

Breaking Free

Short Answer

1. How does the speaker describe the weight of family expectations in the poem?
2. What does the phrase "a different world I'd find" suggest about the speaker's desires?
3. How does the speaker feel about their family's love and intentions?
4. What motivates the speaker to venture out and search for their own dreams?
5. What message does the poem convey about the importance of following one's own dreams and aspirations?

