

Name _____

Breaking Free

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker describes the weight of family expectations as a burden on their shoulders.
2. The phrase suggests that the speaker wants to explore a different path in life, separate from what their family expects.
3. The speaker acknowledges that their family's love is strong and their intentions are pure.
4. The speaker is motivated to venture out and search for their own dreams by their desire for independence and the need to pursue their own path.
5. The poem conveys the message that following one's own dreams and aspirations is important, even when faced with the weight of family expectations.

