

Name _____

The British Museum: Uncovering the Riches of History

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are visiting the British Museum, and you stand in front of the Rosetta Stone. Describe your thoughts and emotions as you encounter this historic artifact.
2. Research and write about one of the African art pieces found in the British Museum's collection. Explain its cultural significance and artistic features.
3. Discuss the importance of ethical collecting and artifact repatriation in museums, using the British Museum as an example.
4. If you could explore one specific gallery or department within the British Museum, which one would it be, and why? What would you hope to learn or discover there?

