

Name _____

Broken Bonds

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes the intersection of love and betrayal as the point where a choice was made and a secret was revealed, leading to a shattered friendship.
2. The choice made and the secret revealed had the effect of unraveling the trust and bond of the friendship, causing pain and anger.
3. The characters choose to rebuild the friendship by forgiving each other and choosing love over spite and anger.
4. The poem suggests that friendship is complex and that forgiveness is a powerful choice that can heal wounds and rebuild trust.
5. The poem ends with the characters choosing to rebuild their friendship, leaving the lesson that forgiveness and love can mend broken bonds.

