

Name _____

Filippo Brunelleschi: Master of Renaissance Architecture

Short Answer Key

1. One of Filippo Brunelleschi's architectural innovations was introducing the concept of linear perspective in art and architecture, allowing for more realistic and proportionate representations.
2. Brunelleschi's victory in the competition for the Gates of Paradise solidified his reputation as a master architect and elevated his career.
3. The Florence Cathedral is also known as the Florence Duomo, and its dome posed a significant architectural challenge due to its massive size and weight.
4. Filippo Brunelleschi is considered an influential figure in the world of art and architecture because of his innovative architectural designs, introduction of linear perspective, and contributions to the Renaissance's revival of classical aesthetics.
5. Filippo Brunelleschi left a legacy of innovation and transformation in the fields of engineering, design, and perspective, influencing countless architects who came after him and shaping the Renaissance and future architectural movements.

