

Name _____

Budding Knowledge

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. This comparison emphasizes the idea that students, like flowers, are eager to grow and learn, seeking knowledge and opportunities for personal development.
2. The poem suggests that spring represents a time of renewal and new opportunities, symbolized by the appearance of fresh buds and the growth of both nature and students.
3. The "gift in hand" represents the knowledge and learning that students acquire through education. It is described as education's gift because education provides the tools and opportunities for personal and intellectual growth.
4. The poem conveys hope by highlighting the idea of fresh beginnings and the growth of students, suggesting that education brings hope and optimism for the future.

