

Name _____

Busting Bug Myths: Separating Fact from Fiction

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a common misconception about bugs and diseases?

- a) Bugs are all dirty
- b) Bugs carry diseases
- c) Bugs are harmless
- d) Bugs are friendly pets

2. Which statement about spiders is true?

- a) All spiders are dangerous
- b) Most spiders bite humans intentionally
- c) Only a few spider species are harmful
- d) Spiders are not found in homes

3. What do bees primarily contribute to ecosystems?

- a) Pest control
- b) Soil aeration
- c) Pollination
- d) Water purification

4. Why do some people find bugs gross or disgusting?

- a) Bugs have familiar appearances
- b) Bugs are beneficial to humans
- c) Bugs are harmless
- d) Bugs have unfamiliar appearances

5. How do bugs typically react to human contact?

- a) Bugs will intentionally harm humans
- b) Bugs will hide from humans
- c) Bugs will approach humans for interaction
- d) Bugs will not harm humans unless provoked

