

Name _____

Busting Bug Myths: Separating Fact from Fiction

Short Answer Key

1. Ladybugs are a beneficial predator bug.
2. Black widow and brown recluse are potentially harmful spider species.
3. Ants aerate the soil and decompose organic matter.
4. Some people view bugs as gross or disgusting due to their unfamiliar appearances or behaviors.
5. Humans should approach bugs with curiosity and respect, understanding that most bugs are harmless and beneficial to the environment.

