

Name _____

Building Strong Characters: What is Character Education?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is character education primarily focused on?
 - a) Solving math problems
 - b) Developing virtues and positive behaviors
 - c) Memorizing facts
 - d) Playing sports

2. In which of the following settings does character education take place?
 - a) Restaurants
 - b) Schools
 - c) Movie theaters
 - d) Shopping malls

3. How do parents contribute to character education in their children?
 - a) By setting rules and expectations at home
 - b) By giving children money
 - c) By letting children do whatever they want
 - d) By watching TV together

4. What is the benefit of having strong character traits in a community?
 - a) It creates conflict and division
 - b) It makes the community weaker
 - c) It fosters positivity and support
 - d) It leads to more rules and regulations

5. Why is character education important for future success?
 - a) It teaches advanced math skills
 - b) It prepares individuals to become famous
 - c) Employers value employees with strong character traits
 - d) It helps individuals win in competitive sports

