Name _____

Building Strong Characters: What is Character Education?

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine a world where everyone practiced good character traits. How do you think this would impact society? Give at least two examples.

2. Share a personal story or experience where you or someone you know demonstrated a strong character trait and its positive impact.

3. Reflect on the character traits you believe are most important. Explain why you value these traits and how they can contribute to a better world.

4. Do you think character education should be a mandatory part of school curricula? Why or why not? Provide reasons to support your opinion.

© ReadingDuck.com